PHCA Praises Appointment of Teleta Nevius To Serve as Deputy Secretary for the Office of Social Programs

Harrisburg, PA – The Pennsylvania Health Care Association (PHCA) today praised the Administration’s selection of Teleta Nevius to serve as Deputy Secretary for the Office of Social Programs at the Pennsylvania Department of Public Welfare (DPW), and said seniors and younger adults needing social services can count upon her expertise, dedication and professionalism when it comes to the programs management and administration.

“With Nevius’s 30 plus years of experience working with providers and consumers as well as her experience with DPW and personal care homes, the seniors and disabled of Pennsylvania can depend on a true leader,” stated Alan G. Rosenbloom, President and CEO of PHCA. “We look forward to continue working with her and the DPW to ensure seniors and the disabled receive the best quality of care Pennsylvania and our nation has to offer.”

PHCA is a statewide membership services organization representing more than 325 long-term care and senior service providers throughout the Commonwealth. Additional information about PHCA is available by calling 717-221-1800 or visiting www.phca.org.
