

Membership Benefits At-A-Glance

A powerful voice. A leading advocate.

Today, as the decisions being made in Harrisburg and Washington, D.C. affect every facet of your operations, it's more critical than ever for Pennsylvania's long-term care sector to be in a position of both prominence and influence. To meet the care demands and expectations of our seniors, we must have a seat at the table to affect change and create favorable policy.

Say hello to PHCA.

At the Pennsylvania Health Care Association (PHCA), we are proud of our reputation as the commonwealth's leading advocacy association, representing Pennsylvania's most vulnerable residents and their providers of care.

Influence is earned not borrowed. With offices in Harrisburg, just steps from our state Capitol, our expertise, experience and connections to advocate each and every day on your behalf.

In short, PHCA is at the forefront of every long-term care issue in Pennsylvania.
